

Course Program

Level 2: A2/B1

Content (Common European Framework of Reference): A2.2-B1

1 st half of the course: Topics	2 nd half of the course: Topics
Education and Profession	Consumption, Advertising
Family, Friendship	Food and Drinks
Travel (1)	Travel (2), Countryside
Interests	Technology and Inventions
Health, Sports, Transport	Media
Heros and Heroines	Art and Money
	Germany, The Berlin Wall

1 st half of the course: Grammar	2 nd half of the course: Grammar
Adjectives, Reflexive Verbs	Final Clauses, Relative Clauses (2)
Relative Clauses (1)	Passive
Infinitive Phrases, Verbs requiring Accusative & Dative	Passive with Modal Verbs
Temporal Clauses, Concessive Clauses	Causal Clauses
Conditional Form II (1)	Conditional Form II (2)
Temporal and Lokal Prepositions	Prepositions requiring Genitive
Verbs with Prepositions, Irregular Verbs

In this course, we will work with the textbook "Motive".

You will receive additional teaching materials as copies that you can collect in a binder. Using texts based on the above-mentioned topics, listening, reading and text production skills are practiced.

Tests

The skills or the grammar material practiced will be checked via twice-weekly tests. This allows you to monitor your progress closely.

Homework

You will be given daily homework assignments to be discussed or corrected in class.

Stand: Januar 2019